

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, April 10. 1716.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 14.

Lemberg, March 14.

WE hear from the Frontiers, that the Turks of Chocim have suddenly fallen upon Zwanice, which they pillaged, and carried away the Inhabitants into Slavery. At Two o'Clock this Morning we saw in the Heavens 13 Globes of Fire, one whereof threw out a very great Light.

Wilna, March 15. Preparations are making by the Gentlemen here for mourning on Horseback the 20th Instant. The Territory of Olmian furnishes 7000 Men, who have been exercised for some time past. The Diet of this Palatinate separated the 5th, after having come to these Resolutions. 1. To invite all the Palatinates and Districts of Lithuania to send their Deputies to a General Assembly to be held the 21d of this Month. 2. That 12 Commissaries assist at that Assembly on the Part of this Palatinate, and that the General of the Army shall be charged to join and succour the Polish Confederate Army. 3. That 10 Tymphen upon every Chimney shall be raised for the Lithuanian Army: And this Tax it already begun to be levied.

Warsaw, March 27. The Deputy whom the Senators sent to the Confederates at Limbolic is returned, without succeeding in his Commission; the Confederates persisting in their refusal of all manner of Accommodation before the Saxon Troops are actually gone out of the Kingdom.

Prima, April 1. We hear from Hungary, that the Turks have absolutely forbid all Commerce with the Hereditary Counties of Austria, and no body is allowed to go out or come into their Country. They give out nevertheless that they will not make War with the Emperor, but only put themselves in a Condition of not fearing what may happen. There are collected together in the Tyrol, the necessary Barks for transporting the three Regiments of Bagni, Caraffa, and Wetzell, who have Orders to go from Italy to Hungary. 'Tis said Prince Emanuel of Portugal, the Electoral Prince of Saxony, and the Electoral Prince of Bavaria, will make the Campaign in Hungary this Summer.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 14.

Copenhagen, April 7. Vice-Admiral Gabel with the Squadron undron his Command set sail Yesterday with a favourable Wind, to transport to Norway 6000 Men of Regular Troops.

Hamburgh, April 10. Here are various Speculations upon the Armament the French are making by Sea, and the Swedes flatter themselves that it is in their Favour. A new Remittance is come hither for 90000 Crowns from the Court of France for the King of Sweden, which is not to be paid without express Order from the Prince; which much disturbs General Stackelberg, who is here, and would have employed that Money in transporting into Sweden the 1000 Swedes taken Prisoners at Stralsund; apprehending that if the King of Denmark be not satisfied for maintaining them before the first of May, he will (as he is allowed by Agreement) make them Prisoners of War.

The Lubek Post arrived Yesterday has brought many Letters from Sweden, among the rest some which say that the King of Sweden has committed to Baron Görtz the Direction of the Finances of his Kingdom, giving him full Power to regulate them as he thinks proper for the Good and Interest of his Majesty; and 'tis believed that this said Baron will also have the Direction of Foreign Affairs.

We hear from Wismar, that the Governor had offered to Capitulate, upon Condition that the National Swedes may be transported to Sweden; demanding no Terms for the Germans that shall be found among the Troops of the Garrison: But that was refused.

Magus, April 14. The Advices which the States have received of divers other Prizes taken by the Algerines, have furnished Matter to divers Consultations upon the most effectual and speedy Means to be used for renewing the Treaty with those Barbarians; the rather least the Porte should make some new Advance upon our Merchants trading to the Levant: For the Grand Signior having declared that he will treat as Enemies all the Christian States who directly or indirectly shall assist the Venetians, such Explications upon that Declaration may be made as the Porte pleases, and sudden Demands be made upon the Merchants. In the mean time, to remove all Pretence for it, a severe Prohibition, upon the request of the Directors of the Levant Trade, is laid upon all the Subjects of this State, forbidding them to carry to Venice or any of the Countries depending on it, any sorts of Goods useful in War, which the Turks may call Contraband. Nothing was forgot at taking Leave of the Turkish Aga to make him, as also his Principals, well disposed towards us. For, besides a Present of 2000 Florins and defraying the Expences of his Voyage and transport to Smirna, a Letter was sent by him in Answer to that of the Captain Balthaw or Admiral of the Ottoman Fleet, with two others to the Sultan and the Grand Vizier; the Substance whereof is, that for divers Reasons the States have thought fit to send their Orders concerning the Satisfaction on the Aga came hither to demand, to their Ambassador at Constantinople, to confer with the Prime Vizier about it. That their High Mightinesses no ways doubted that their Orders would be Satisfactory on all Accounts, and conformable to the Alliance good Understanding and Friendship between the High Porte and this Republick, which has subsisted for above an Age past, and does still subsist; and the States will be always ready, not only to cultivate and maintain that Alliance and good Friendship, but even to augment it if possible, in expectation and confidence that the High Porte will do the same on their Side.

The States General have been considering upon the Instructions to be given to the Commander in Chief of the Squadron that is suddenly to be sent to the Baltick; and it appears that those Instructions will be very different from what was given last Year.

We have Advice from Copenhagen, that two Ships belonging to the Subjects of this State which wintered there and were designed for Carlskrona and Carlskroon in Sweden, laden with Tobacco and other Provisions, have been arrested, and after their Lading was sold, discharged. 'Tis not doubted but Sweden will form new Complaints hereupon: But as by their Way of Proceeding they have given Denmark the Right and put it upon the Necessity of doing the like, those Complaints will produce no Effect. Besides, the Danes pretending that the Cargo was intended for the Service of the Swedish Fleet, and themselves were in great want of it for theirs, and that they pay for it in ready Money, whereas the Swedes have always confiscated and declared all the Ships which their Privateers have taken from the Subjects of this State as lawful Prize, when they were designed for the Enemies, there is no room for any manner of Complaint. Other Incidents of this Nature being foreseen,

• is partly the cause that the departure of M. de
• Goes for Copenhagen is hastened.
• Don Louis d'Acunha, Ambassador of the King
• of Portugal, is preparing to depart in a Fortnight
• for the Court of Great-Britain.
